

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- What is the name and colour of this vegetable?

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- Is the pea...?
 - a) An inflorescent vegetable
 - b) A leaf vegetable
 - c) A grain legume

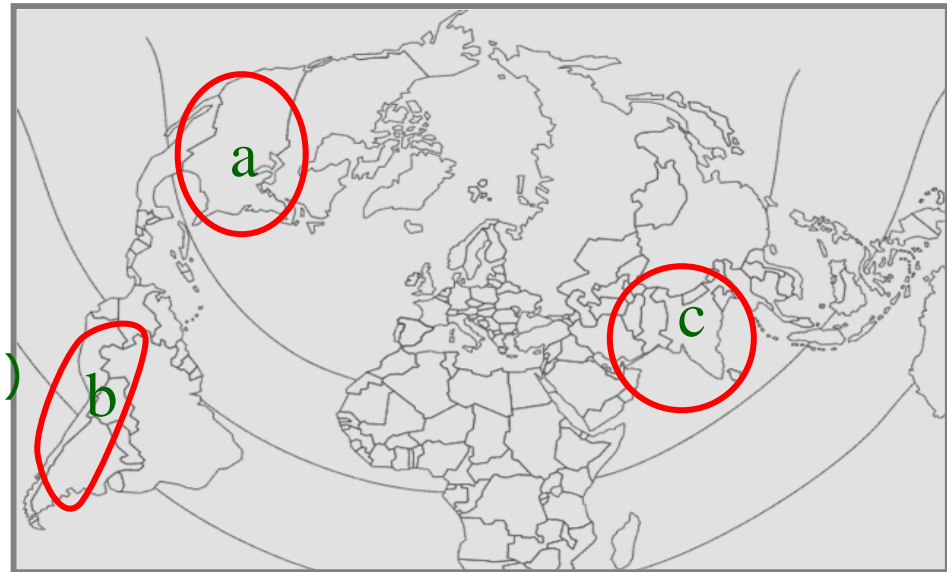

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- Where did the pea originally come from?

- a) North America
- b) The Andes
- c) South-west Asia
(the East, India, Persia)

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- In what seasons can peas be grown?

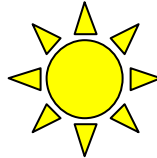

a) Winter

b) Autumn

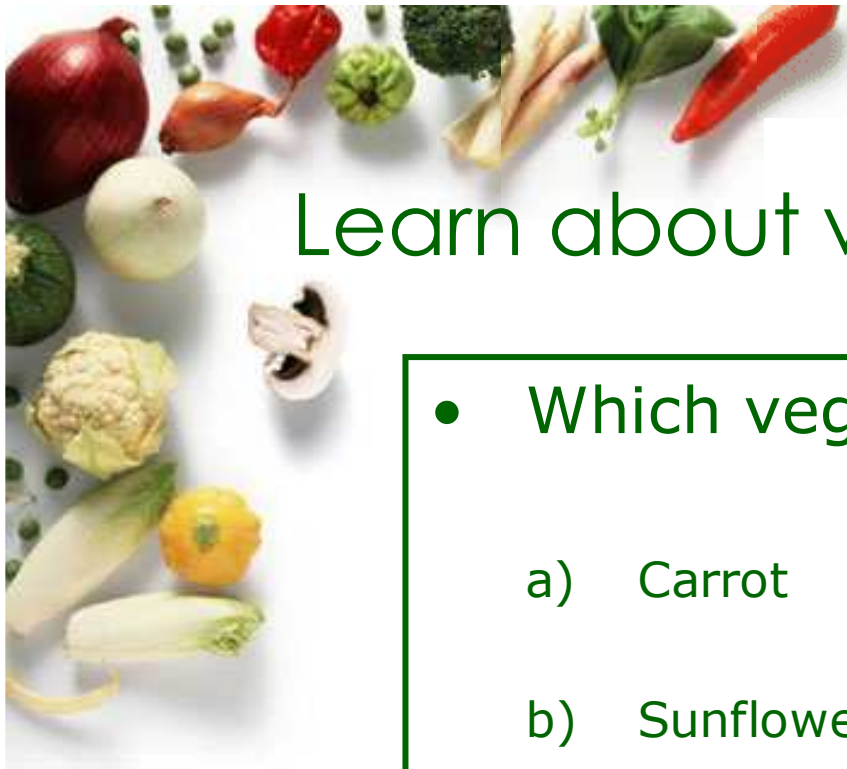

c) Summer

d) Spring

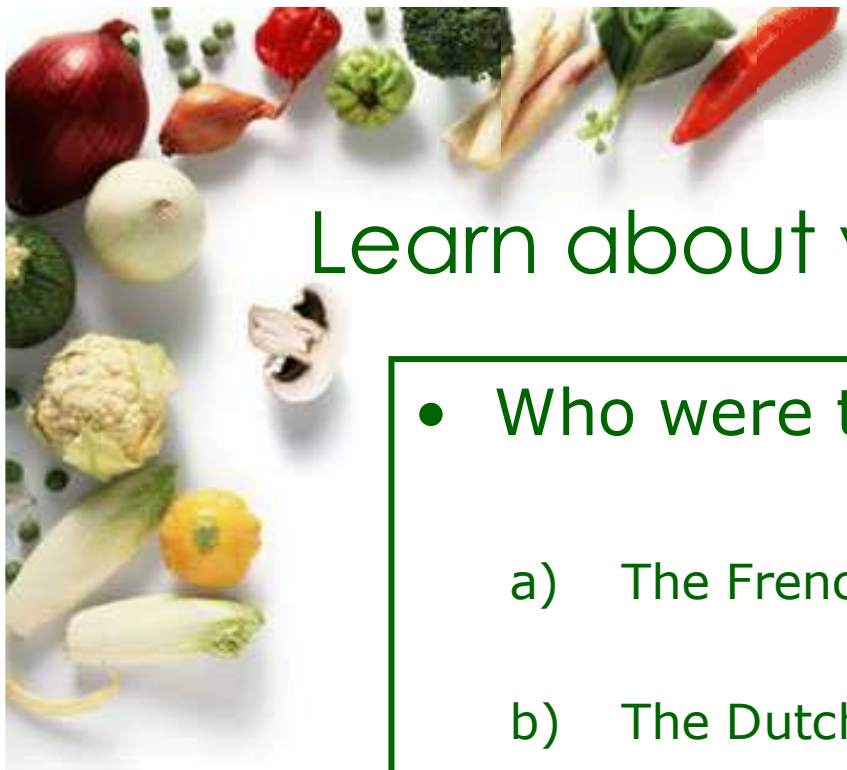

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- Which vegetable produces this plant?

- a) Carrot
- b) Sunflower
- c) Pea

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- Who were the first to eat green peas?
 - a) The French
 - b) The Dutch
 - c) The Spanish

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- Peas are green because we pick them before they ripen.

a) True

b) False

Learn about vegetables with Louis

- What was the first vegetable to be tinned?
 - a) Carrot
 - b) Pea
 - c) Corn

Answers

1. The pea. It is green
2. The seed is contained in the fruit
3. In the spring
4. The carrot
5. Peas are supposedly from the East, Persia or India
6. The Dutch were the first to eat unripe peas
7. True - that is why they are green
8. The pea, of course